

NFPA-1 CODE TRAINING

Wisconsin Fire Departments should attend!
Opportunity to receive a FREE NFPA-1 Code Book.

In cooperation, the Department of Commerce and National Fire Protection Association have scheduled four one-day training sessions throughout Wisconsin. All Wisconsin fire departments are invited to attend. Each department in attendance will receive a copy of the NEW NFPA-1 2009 edition. Jim Dolan, NFPA Regional Manager Fire Code Field Office, is flying in from New Jersey to present a full-day of training on the new code.

Training will begin at 8 am, with registration opening at 7. Class will conclude by 5. Lunch and break-time refreshments are provided at each location offering the Safety & Buildings NFPA-1 Code Training.
